

Hello,

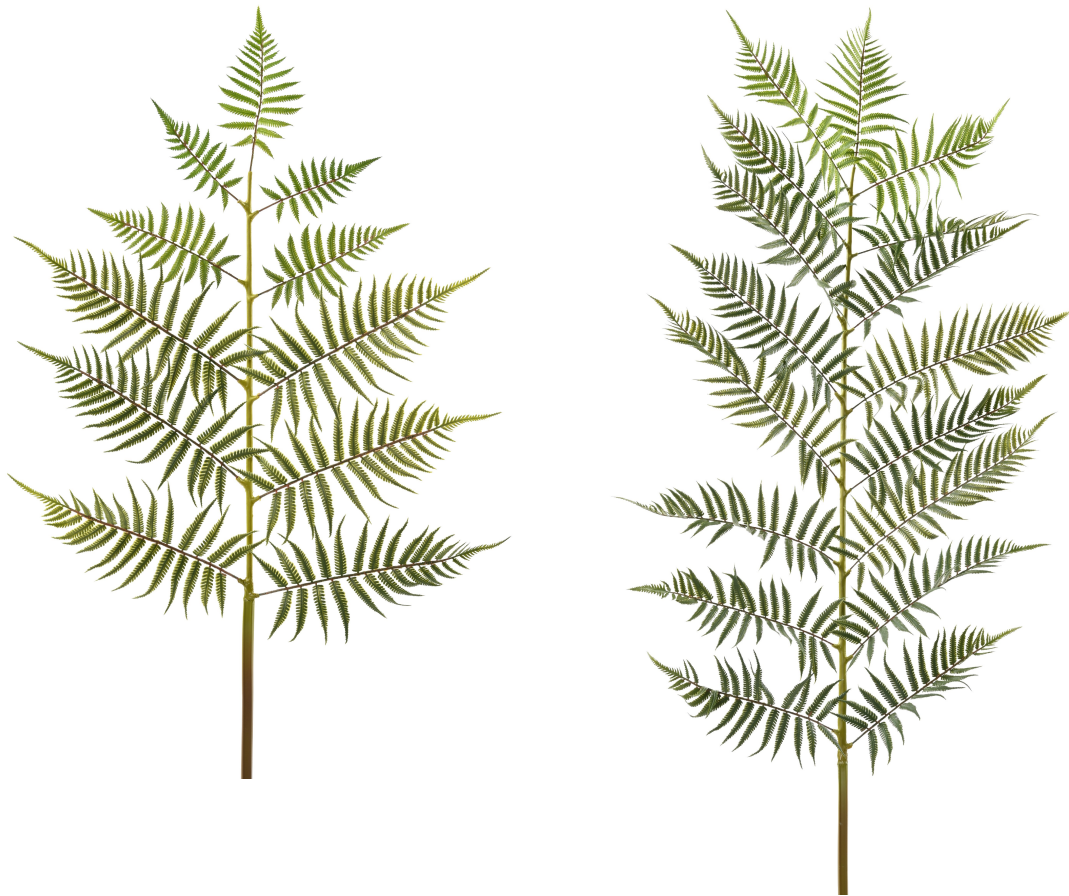

Saving time on materials means saving time on site.

Inspiration doesn't come from accumulation, but from what leaves room for what truly matters.

Clear, readily available tools designed to support your expertise and let each project breathe.

Discover our latest updates in this newsletter: new features, improved tools, a website now available in three languages, and the latest edition of our catalogue.

Giant fern leaf

We love them for their quality and their remarkable finish.

Delicate sprays with a slender silhouette and finely cut foliage. Stems in subtle shades of bronze and light green add depth and rhythm without ever feeling heavy.

Fire-resistant and UV-resistant

A revisited classic, the laurel ball on stem features UV treatment and a stable, regular silhouette, making it a reliable solution for entrances, terraces and reception areas.

Reference : 1764-UV71B

Height : 135 cm

The Alocasia Calidora is a structuring plant, ideal for creating a strong sense of volume within a space.

Classified as Fire Resistant (FR), it meets the requirements of public spaces, offices and event projects.

Reference : 21853-71FR hauteur : 120 cm

Myrtle branch 130

Some foliage immediately catches the eye. The myrtle branch is one of those essentials.

Reference : 26168-71 height : 130 cm

It works as a background element to lighten overly dense arrangements, as a linking foliage around a main feature, or combined in multiple branches to create a natural-looking shrub.

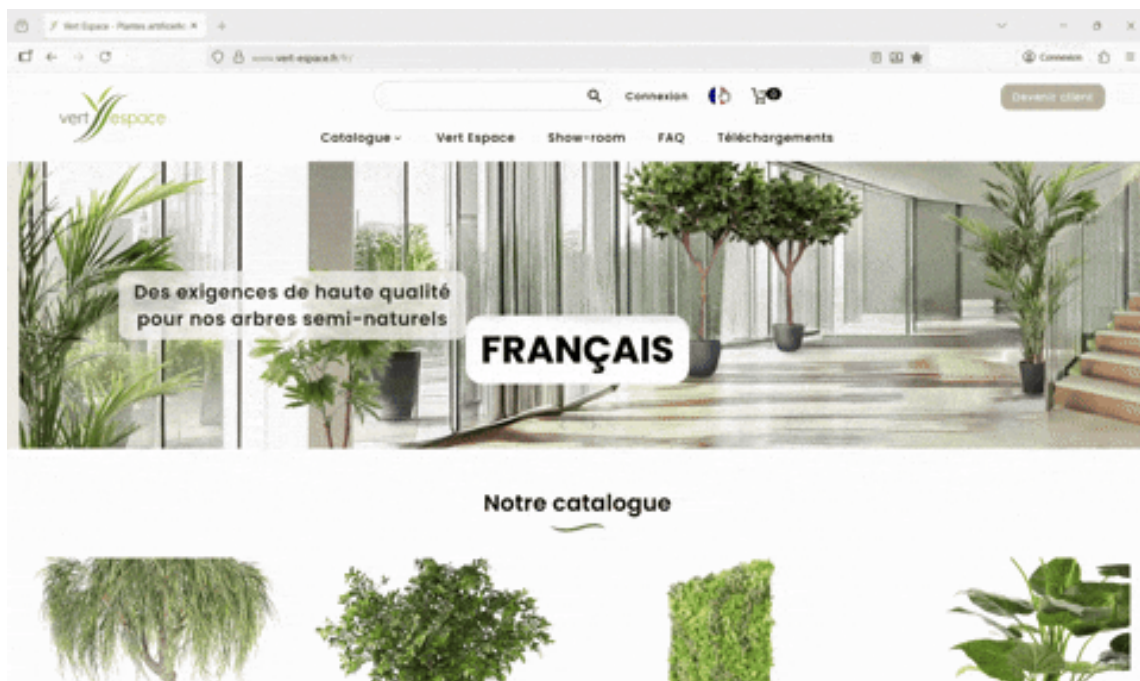

Placed in large Médicis-style vases, it also fits perfectly into hotel, office or institutional projects.
